

23rd ITS World Congress

2016 Melbourne (Australia)

Congress Theme	ITS - Enhancing Liveable Cities and Communities
Date	10 - 14 October
Venue	The Melbourne Convention and Exhibition Centre (MCEC)
Countries	73
Attendees	Total participants: 11496
Exhibitors	278
Organizing Committee Chair	Mr. Brian Negus, RACV
BOD Chair	Mr. Brian Negus, RACV
IPC Chair	Mr. Dean Zabrieszach, VicRoad

Overview

With the theme 'ITS-Enhancing Livable Cities and Communities', the 23rd ITS World Congress 2016 Melbourne featured 4 Plenary Sessions, 12 Executive Sessions, 72 Special Interest Sessions, 22 Scientific Sessions, 91 Technical Session, 5 Commercial Sessions, 4 Interactive Sessions and 3 "Melbourne Conversations Sessions and 4 IBEC sessions. Being selected as the Most Livable City in the world for 6 consecutive years (Economist, UK), Melbourne led the discussion on the themes of "Automated Driving", "Big, Open Data" and "Smart City perspective".

Key topics (Plenary Sessions)

Plenary sessions

Automated and Connected Vehicles

Smart Cities

Connectivity and Big Data

Mobility as a Service

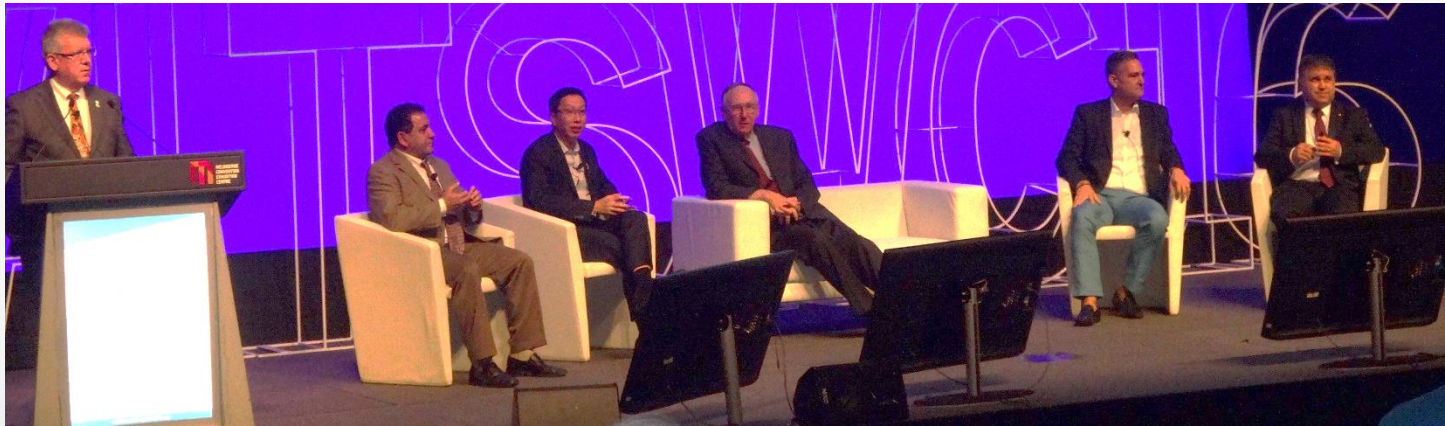

High Level Policy Round Table

Opening Ceremony

Plenary Sessions

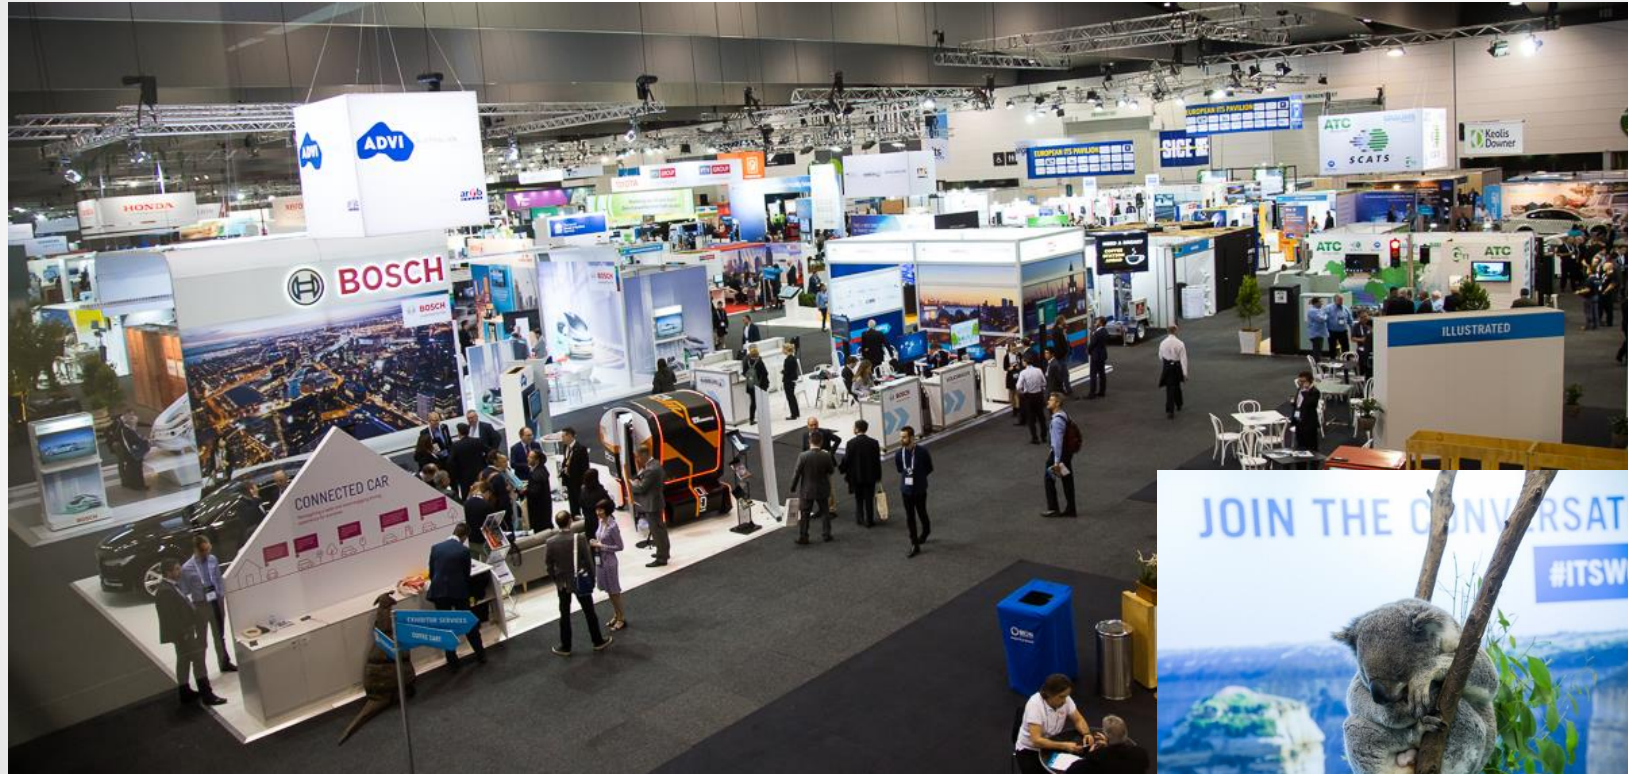

Plenary Sessions

Exhibition

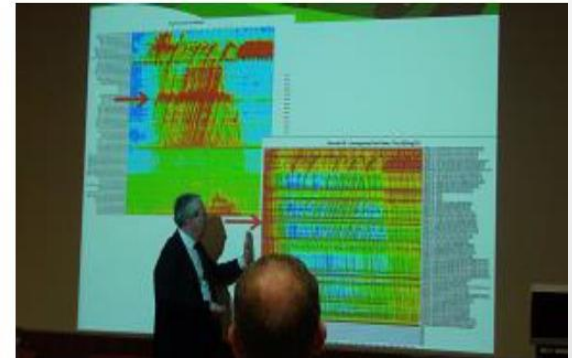

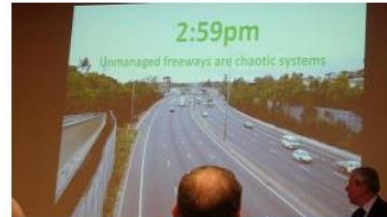

Exhibition

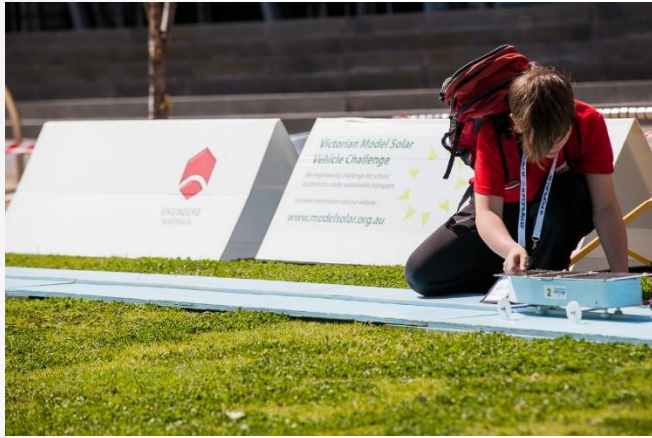

Technical Demonstrations

Technical Visits

Programs for Youth

Hall of Famers: Lifetime Achievement

EMEA – Eric Sampson,
Newcastle University,
UK

America – Kirk Steudle
Michigan DOT, USA

Asia-Pacific – Hiroyuki
Watanabe, ITS Japan
(Received by Shinichi Sasaki)

Closing Ceremony

